How to cast the spell

Place the glass on your altar and turn it upside down.

Close your eyes and chant the following spell out loud:

*“ I have captured Emptiness in a glass,
An Emptiness like the one I feel
Once my object returns to me,
This Emptiness will be released. ”*

Visualize the object that you lost and feel the emptiness as you meditate for a few minutes.

Leave the glass upside down on your altar until the object comes back to you. If one week has passed and you haven't recovered it, consider the possibility that your object might be gone forever.
