

THE ORPHIC HYMNS

The Sacred Greek liturgical-hymnological texts are the Orphic Hymns that are considered as God-inspired.

The Orphics are very ancient texts (they are divided into two categories: The Hymns and the theological texts, the foremost of them is the «Sacred Oration of Orpheus - Hieros Logos»), the first known edition took place in Athens, together with the Homeric texts, about -550. According to the Sacred Tradition these texts are of Antediluvian origin, that is they originated before the last 12.500 years [and is interesting that there are contemporary scientific papers that searching the astronomical observations, that are to be found in the texts, come to the same conclusions: They were written when the spring equinox took place in Taurus (in Pleiades: Very impressive image of “Taurus Sun”), the summer solstice in Leo and the celestial pole was near a Draconis]. After the Great Cataclysm a new edition of the texts was made by the holy and legendary figure of Orpheus and so they are known as Orphic.

The Orphic Hymns are recited or chanted in the different Services of the Greek religion. Also, these are used in the private prayer as the appropriate invocations of the various Gods.

For the Greek speaking people the Committee for the Greek Religion approves their recitation in their original classical Greek language. For the English speaking people the English translation of Thomas Taylor is the approved text because it does justice to the sublime teachings of the ancient Mysteries that are incorporated into the Hymns and is appropriately in rhyme.

Indeed, Thomas Taylor, the renown philosopher who devoted his life to the study of Classical Philosophy being a leading Platonist has made an excellent poetic translation of «The Hymns of Orpheus» in 1792. In this translation we have the feeling that the original author is speaking to us across the centuries and it becomes immediately apparent that Taylor had an extraordinary knowledge of the Greek Mystery Tradition!

The Prayer the most sacred of all ;
dedicated to Musaeus:

Jove I invoke, the earth, and solar light,
The moon's pure splendor, and the stars of night ;
Thee Neptune, ruler of the sea profound,
Dark-hair'd, whose waves begirt the solid ground ;
Ceres abundant, and of lovely mien,
And Proserpine infernal Pluto's queen ;
The huntress Dian, and bright Phoebus rays,
Far-darting God, the theme of Delphic praise ;
And Bacchus, honour'd by the heav'nly choir,
And raging Mars, and Vulcan god of fire;
The mighty pow'r who rose from foam to light,
And Pluto potent in the realms of night ;
With Hebe young, and Hercules the strong,
And you to whom the cares of births belong :
Justice and Piety august I call,
And much-fam'd nymphs, and Pan the god of all.
To Juno sacred, and to Mem'ry fair,
And to chaste Muses I address my pray'r ;
The various year, the Graces, and the Hours,
Fair-hair'd Latona, and Dione's pow'rs ;
Armed Curetes, household Gods I call,
With those who spring from Jove the king of all ;
Th' Idaean Gods, the angel of the skies,
And righteous Themis, with sagacious eyes ;
With ancient night, and day-light I implore,
And Faith, and Justice dealing right adore ;
Saturn and Rhea, and great Thetis too,
Hid in a veil of bright celestial blue ;
I call great Ocean, and the beauteous train
Of nymphs, who dwell in chambers of the main ;
Atlas the strong, and ever in its prime,
Vig'rous Eternity, and endless Time ;
The Stygian pool, and placid Gods beside,
And various Genii, that o'er men preside ;
Illustrious Providence, the noble train

Of daemon forms, who fill th' aetherial plain ;
Or live in air, in water, earth, or fire,
Or deep beneath the solid ground retire.
Bacchus and Semele the friends of all,
And white Leucothea of the sea I call ;
Palaemon bounteous, and Adrastra great,
And sweet-tongu'd Victory, with success elate ;
Great Esculapius, skill'd to cure disease,
And dread Minerva, whom fierce battles please ;
Thunders and winds in mighty columns pent,
With dreadful roaring struggling hard for vent ;
Attis, the mother of the pow'rs on high,
And fair Adonis, never doom'd to die,
End and beginning he is all to all,
These with propitious aid I gently call ;
And to my holy sacrifice invite,
The pow'r who reigns in deepest hell and night .

2. To the Hecate.

I call Einodian Hecate, lovely dame,
Of earthly, wat'ry, and celestial frame,
Sepulchral, in a saffron veil array'd,
Pleas'd with dark ghosts that wander thro' the shade ;
Persian, unconquerable huntress hail !
The world's key-bearer never doom'd to fail ;
On the rough rock to wander thee delights,
Leader and nurse be present to our rites ;
Propitious grant our just desires success,
Accept our homage, and the incense bless.

2. To the Goddess Prothyraea.

The Fumigation from Storax.

O venerable goddess, hear my pray'r,
For labour pains are thy peculiar care ;
In thee, when stretch'd upon the bed of grief,
The sex as in a mirror view relief.
Guard of the race, endued with gentle mind,
To helpless youth, benevolent and kind ;
Benignant nourisher ; great Nature's key
Belongs to no divinity but thee.
Thou dwell'st with all immanifest to fight,
And solemn festivals are thy delight.
Thine is the task to loose the virgin's zone,
And thou in ev'ry work art seen and known.
With births you sympathize, tho' pleas'd to see
The numerous offspring of fertility ;
When rack'd with nature's pangs and sore distress'd,
The sex invoke thee, as the soul's sure rest ;
For thou alone can'st give relief to pain,
Which art attempts to ease, but tries in vain ;
Assisting goddess, venerable pow'r,
Who bring'st relief in labour's dreadful hour ;
Hear, blessed Dian, and accept my pray'r,
And make the infant race thy constant care.

3. To Night.

The Fumigation with Torches.

Night, parent goddess, source of sweet repose,
From whom at first both Gods and men arose,
Hear, blessed Venus, deck'd with starry light,
In sleep's deep silence dwelling Ebon night!
Dreams and soft aese attend thy dusky train,
Pleas'd with the length'ned gloom and feastful strain.
Dissolving anxious care, the friend of Mirth,
With darkling coursers riding round the earth.
Goddess of phantoms and of shadowy play,
Whose drowsy pow'r divides the nat'ral day :
By Fate's decree you constant send the light to deepest hell, remote from mortal fight ;
For dire Necessity which nought withstands,
Invests the world with adamantine bands.
Be present, Goddess, to thy suppliant's pray'r,
Desir'd by all, whom all alike revere,
Blessed, benevolent, with friendly aid
Dispell the fears of Twilight's dreadful shade.

4. To Heaven.

The Fumigation from Frankincense.

Great Heav'n, whose mighty frame no respite knows,
Father of all, from whom the world arose :
Hear, bounteous parent, source and end of all,
Forever whirling round this earthly ball ;
Abode of Gods, whose guardian pow'r surrounds
Th' eternal World with ever during bounds ;
Whose ample bosom and encircling folds
The dire necessity of nature holds.
Aetherial, earthly, whose all-various frame
Azure and full of forms, no power can tame.
All seeing Heav'n, progenitor of Time ;
Forever blessed, deity sublime,
Propitious on a novel mystic shine,
And crown his wishes with a life divine.

5. To Fire.

The Fumigation from Saffron.

Over untam'd Fire, who reign'st oh high
In Jove's dominions ruler of the sky ;
The glorious sun with dazzling lustre bright,
And moon and stars from thee derive their light ;
All taming pow'r, aetherial shining fire,
Whose vivid blasts the heat of life inspire :
The world's bestelement, light-bearing pow'r,
With starry radiance shining, splendid flow'r,
O hear my suppliant pray'r, and may thy frame
Be ever innocent, serene, and tame.

6. To Protogonus.

The Fumigation from Myrrh.

O Mighty first-begotten, hear my pray'r,
Two-fold, egg-born, and wand'ring thro' the air,
Bull-rearer, glorying in thy golden wings,
From whom the race of Gods and mortals springs,
Ericapaeus, celebrated pow'r,
Ineffable, occult, all shining flow'r.
From eyes obscure thoy wip'st the gloom of night,
All-spreading splendour, pure and holy light ;
Hence Phanes call'd, the glory of the sky,
On waving pinions thro' the world you fly.
Priapus, dark-ey'd splendour, thee I sing,
Genial, all prudent, ever-blessed king,
With joyful aspect on our rights divine
And holy sacrifice propitious shine.

7. To the Stars.

The Fumigation from Aromatics.

With holy voice I call the stars on high,
Pure sacred lights and genii of the sky.
Celestial stars, the progeny of Night,
In whirling circles beaming far your light,
Refulgent rays around the heav'ns ye throw,
Eternal fires, the source of all below.
With flames significant of Fate ye shine,
And aptly rule for men a path divine.
In seven bright zones ye run with wand'ring flames,
And heaven and earth compose your lucid frames :
With course unwearied, pure and fiery bright
Forever shining thro' the veil of Night.
Hail twinkling, joulful, ever wakeful fires !
Propitious shine on all just desires ;
These sacred rites regard with conscious rays,
And end our works devoted to your praise.

8. To the Sun.

The Fumigation from Frankincense and Manna.

Hear golden Titan, whose eternal eye
With broad survey, illumines all the sky :
Self-born, unwearied in diffusing light,
And to all eyes the mirrour of delight :
Lord of the seasons, with thy fiery car
And leaping coursers, beaming light from far :
With thy right hand the source of morning light,
And with thy left the father of the night,
Agile and vig'rous, venerable Sun,
Fiery and bright around the heav'ns you run.
Foe to the wicked, but the good man's guide,
O'er all his steps propitious you preside :
With various-sounding, golden lyre, 'tis thine
To fill the world with harmony divine.
Father of ages, guide of prosp'rous deeds,
The world's commander, borne by lucid steeds,
Immortal Jove, all-searching, bearing light,
Source of existence, pure and fiery bright :
Bearer of fruit, almighty lord of years,
Agil and warm, whom ev'ry pow'r reveres.
Great eye of nature and the starry skies,
Doom'd with immortal flames to set and rise :
Dispensing justice, lover of the stream,
The world's great despot, and o'er all supreme.
Faithful defender, and the eye of right,
Of steeds the ruler, and of life the light :
With founding whip four fiery steeds you guide,
When in the car of day you glorious ride.
Propitious on these mystic labours shine,
And bless thy suppliants with a life divine.

9. To the Moon.

The Fumigation from Aromatics.

Hear, Goddess queen, diffusing silver light,
Bull-horn'd and wand'ring thro' the gloom of Night.
With stars surrounded, and with circuit wide
Night's torch extending, thro' the heav'ns you ride :
Female and Male with borrow'd rays you shine,
And now ful-orb'd, now tending to decline.
Mother of ages, fruit-producing Moon,
Whose amber orb makes Night's reflected noon :
Lover of horses, splendid, queen of Night,
All-seeing pow'r bedeck'd with starry light.
Lover of vigilance, the foe of strife,
In peace rejoicing, and a prudent life :
Fair lamp of Night, its ornament and friend,
Who giv'st to Nature's works their destin'd end.
Queen of the stars, all-wife Diana hail !
Deck'd with a graceful robe and shining veil ;
Come, blessed Goddess, prudent, starry, bright,
Come, moony-lamp with chaste and splendid light,
Shine on these sacred rites with prosp'rous rays,
And pleas'd accept the suppliant's mystic praise.

10. To Nature.

The Fumigation from Aromatics.

Nature, all parent, ancient, and divine,
O much-mechanic mother, art is thine ;
Heav'nly, abundant, venerable queen,
In ev'ry part of thy dominions seen.
Untam'd, all-taming, eversplendid light,
All ruling, honor'd, and supremely bright.
Immortal, first-born, ever still the same,
Nocturnal, starry, shining, glorious dame.
Thy feet's still traces in a circling course,
By thee are turn'd, with unremitting force.
Pure ornament of all the pow'rs divine,
Finite and infinite alike you shine ;
To all things common and in all things known,
Yet incommunicable and alone.
Without a father of thy wond'rous frame,
Thyself the father whence thy essence came.
All-flourishing, connecting, mingling soul,
Leader and ruler of this mighty whole.
Life-bearer, all-sustaining, various nam'd,
And for commanding grace and beauty fam'd.
Justice, supreme in might, whose general sway
The waters of the restless deep obey.
Aetherial, earthly, for the pious glad,
Sweet to the good, but bitter to the bad.
All-wife, all-bounteous, provident, divine,
A rich increase of nutriment is thine ;
Father of all, great nurse, and mother kind,
Abundant, blessed, all-spermatoc mind :
Mature, impetuous, from whose fertile seeds
And plastic hand, this changing scene proceeds.
All-parent pow'r, to mortal eyes unseen,
Eternal, moving, all-sagacious queen.
By thee the world, whose parts in rapid flow,
Like swift descending streams, no respite know,
On an eternal hinge, with steady course
In whirl'd, with matchless, unremitting force.

Thron'd on a circling car, thy mighty hand
Holds and directs, the reins of wide command.
Various thy essence, honor'd, and the best,
Of judgement too, the general end and test.
Interpid, fatal, all-subduing dame,
Life-everlasting, Parca, breathing flame.
immortal, Providence, the world is thine,
And thou art all things, architect divine.
O blessed Goddess, hear the suppliant's pray'r,
And make my future life, thy constant care ;
Give plenteous seasons, and sufficient wealth,
And crown my days with lasting peace and health.

11. To Pan.

The Fumigation from Various Odours.

I call strong Pan, the substance of the whole,
Ethereal, marine, earthly, general soul,
Immortal fire ; for all the world is thine,
And all are parts of thee, O pow'r divine.
Come, blessed Pan, whom rural haunts delight,
Come, leaping, agile, wand'ring, starry light ;
The Hours and Seasons, wait thy high command,
And round thy throne in graceful order stand.
Goat-footed, horned, Bacchanalian Pan,
Fanatic pow'r, from whom the world began,
Whose various parts by thee inspir'd, combine
In endless dance and melody divine.
In thee a refuge from our fears we find,
Those fears peculiar to the human kind.
Thee shepherds, streams of water, goats rejoice,
Thou lov'st the chace, and Echo's secret voice :
The sportive nymphs, thy ev'ry step attend,
And all thy works fulfill their destin'd end.
O all-producing pow'r, much fam'd, divine,
The world's great ruler, rich increase is thine.
All-fertile Paeon, heav'nly splendor pure,
In fruits rejoicing, and in caves obscure.
True serpent-horned Jove, whose dreadful rage
When rous'd, 'tis hard for mortals to assuage.
By thee the earth wide-bosom'd deep and long,
Stands on a basis permanent and strong.
Th' unwearied waters of the rolling sea,
Profoundly spreading, yield to thy decree.
Old Ocean too reveres thy high command,
Whose liquid arms begirt the solid land.
The spacious air, whose whose nutrimental fire,
And vivid blasts, the heat of life inspire ;
The lighter frame of fire, whose sparkling eye
Shines on the summit of the azure sky,
Submit alike to thee, whose general sway
All parts of matter, various form'd, obey.

All nature's change thro' thy protecting care,
And all mankind thy lib'ral bounties share :
For these where'er dispers'd thro' thy protecting care,
And all mankind thy lib'ral bounties share :
For these where'er dispers'd thro' boundless space,
still find thy providence support their race.
Comme, Bacchanalian, blessed power draw near,
Fanatic Pan, thy humble suppliant hear,
Propitious to these holy rites attend,
And grant my life may meet a prosp'rous end ;
Drive panic Fury too, wherever found,
From human kind, to earth's remotest bound.

12. To Hercules.

The Fumigation from Frankincense.

Hear, pow'rful, Hercules untam'd and strong,
To whom vast hands, and mighty works belongs,
Almighty Titan, prudent and benight,
Of various forms, eternal and divine,
Father of Time, the theme of gen'ral praise,
Ineffable, ador'd in various ways.
Magnanimous, in divination skill'd,
And in the athletic labours of the field.
'Tis thine strong archer, all things to devour,
Supreme, all-helping, all-producing pow'r ;
To thee mankind as their deliv'rer pray,
Whose arm can chase the savage tribes away :
Unweary'd earth's best blossom, offspring fair,
To whom calm peace, and peaceful works are dear.
Self-born, with primogenial fires you shine,
And various names and strength of heart are thine.
Thy mighty head supports the morning light,
And bears untam'd, the silent gloomy night ;
From east to west endu'd with strength divine,
Twelve glorious labours to absolve is thine ;
Supremely skill'd, thou reign'st in heav'n's abodes,
Thyself a God amid'st th' immortal Gods.
With arms unshaken, infinite, divine,
Come, blessed pow'r, and to our rites incline ;
The mitigations of disease convey,
And drive disasterous maladies away.
Come, shake the branch with thy almighty arm,
Dismiss thy darts and noxious fate disarm.

13. To Saturn.

The Fumigation from Storax.

Ethereal father, mighty Titan, hear,
Great fire of Gods and men, whom all revere :
Endu'd with various council, pure and strong,
To whom perfection and decrease belong.
Consum'd by thee all forms that hourly die,
By thee restor'd, their former place supply ;
The world immense in everlasting chains,
Strong and ineffable thy pow'r contains ;
Father of vast eternity, divine,
O mighty Saturn, various speech is thine :
Blossom of earth and of the starry skies,
Husband of Rhea, and Prometheus wife.
Obstetric Nature, venerable root,
From which the various forms of being shoot ;
No parts peculiar can thy pow'r enclose,
Diffus'd thro' all, from which the world arose.
O, best of beings, of a subtle mind,
Propitious hear to holy pray'rs inclin'd ;
The sacred rites benevolent attend,
And grant a blameless life, a blessed end.

14. To Rhea.

The Fumigation from Aromatics.

Daughter of great Protogonus, divine,
Illustrious Rhea, to my pray'r incline,
Who driv'st thy holy car with speed along,
Drawn by fierce lions, terrible and strong.
Mother of Jove, whose mighty arm can wield
Th' avenging bolt, and shake the dreadful shield.
Drum-beating, frantic, of a splendid mien,
Brass-sounding, honor'd, Saturn's blessed queen.
Thou joy'st in mountains and tumultuous fight,
And mankind's horrid howlings, thee delight.
War's parent, mighty, of majestic frame,
Deceitful saviour, liberating dame.
Mother of Gods and men, from whom the earth
And lofty heav'ns derive their glorious birth ;
Th' aetherial gales, the deeply spreading sea
Goddess aerial form'd, proceed from thee.
Come, pleas'd with wand'rings, blessed and divine,
With peace attended on our labours shine ;
Bring rich abundance, and wherever found
Drive dire disease, to earth's remotest bound.

15. To Jupiter.

The Fumigation from Storax.

O Jove much-honor'd, Jove sypremely great,
To thee our holy rites we consecrate,
Our pray'rs and expiations, king divine,
For all things round thy head exalted shine.
The earth is thine, and mountains swelling high,
The sea profound, and all within the sky.
Saturnian king, descending from above,
Magnanimous, commanding, sceptred Jove ;
All-parent, principle and end of all,
Whose pow'r almighty, shakes this earthly ball ;
Ev'n Nature trembles at thy mighty nod,
Loud-sounding, arm'd with light'ning, thund'ring God.
Source of abundance, purifying king,
O various-form'd from whom all natures spring ;
Propitious hear my pray'r, give blameless health,
With peace divine, and necessary wealth.

16. To Juno.

The Fumigation from Aromatics.

O Royal Juno of majestic mien,
Aerial-form'd, divine, Jove's blessed queen,
Thron'd in the bosom of caerulean air,
The race of mortals is thy constant care.
The cooling gales thy pow'r alone inspires,
Which nourish life, which ev'ry life desires.
Mother of clouds and winds, from thee alone
Producing all things, mortal life is known :
All natures share thy temp'rament divine,
And universal sway alone is thine.
With sounding blasts of wind, the swelling sea
And rolling rivers roar, when shook by thee.
Come, blessed Goddess, fam'd almighty queen,
With aspect kind, rejoicing and serene.

17. To Neptune.

The Fumigation from Myrrh.

Hear, Neptune, ruler of the sea profound,
Whose liquid grasp begirts the solid ground ;
Who, at the bottom of the stormy main,
Dark and deep-bosom'd, hold'st thy wat'ry reign ;
Thy awful hand the brazen trident bears,
And ocean's utmost bound, thy will reveres :
Thee I invoke, whose steeds the foam divide,
From whose dark locks the briny waters glide ;
Whose voice loud sounding thro' the roaring deep,
Drives all its billows, in a raging heap ;
When fiercely riding thro' the boiling sea,
Thy hoarse command the trembling waves obey.
Earth shaking, dark-hair'd God, the liquid plains
(The third division) Fate to thee ordains,
'Tis thine, caerulean daemon, to survey
Well pleas'd the monsters of the ocean play,
Confirm earth's basis, and with prosp'rous gales
Waft ships along, and swell the spacious sails ;
Add gentle Peace, and fair-hair'd Health beside,
And pour abundance in a blameless tide.

18. To Pluto.

Pluto, magnanimous, whose realms profound
Are fix'd beneath the firm and solid ground,
In the Tartarian plains remote from sight,
And wrapt forever in the depths of night ;
Terrestrial Jove, thy sacred ear incline,
And, pleas'd, accept thy mystic's hymn divine.
Earth's keys to thee, illustrious king belong,
Its secret gates unlocking, deep and strong.
'Tis thine, abundant annual fruits to bear,
For needy mortals are thy constant care.
To thee, great king, Avernus is assign'd,
The seat of Gods, and basis of mankind.
Thy throne is fix'd in Hade's dismal plains,
Distant, unknown to rest, where darkness reigns ;
Where, destitute of breath, pale spectres dwell,
In endless, dire, inexorable hell ;
And in dread Acheron, whose depths obscure,
Earth's stable roots eternally secure.
O mighty daemon, whose decision dread,
The future fate determines of the dead,
With captive Prosperine, thro' grassy plains,
Drawn in a four-yok'd car with loosen'd reins,
Rapt o'er the deep, impell'd by love, you flew
'Till Eleysina's city rose to view ;
There, in a wond'rous cave obscure and deep,
The sacred maid secure from search you keep,
The cave of Atthis, whose wide gates display
An entrance to the kingdoms void of day.
Of unapparent works, thou art alone
The dispensator, visible and known.
O pow'r all-ruling, holy, honor'd light,
Thee sacred poets and their hymns delight :
Propitious to thy mystic's works incline,
Rejoicing come, for holy rites are thine.

19. To Thundring Jove.

The Fumigation from Storax.

O father Jove, who shak'st with fiery light
The world deep-sounding from thy lofty height :
From thee, proceeds th'aetherial lightning's blaze,
Flashing around intolerable rays.
Thy sacred thunders shake the blest abodes,
The shining regions of th' immortal Gods :
Thy pow'r divine, the flaming lightning shrouds,
With dark investiture, in fluid clouds.
'Tis thine to brandish thunders strong and dire,
To scatter storms, and dreadful darts of fire ;
With roaring flames involving all around,
And bolts of thunder of tremendous sound.
Thy rapid dart can raise the hair upright,
And shake the heart of man with wild afright.
Sudden, unconquer'd, holy, thund'ring God,
With noise unbounded, flying all abroad ;
With all-devouring force, entire and strong,
Horrid, untam'd, thou roll'st the flames along.
Rapid, aetherial bolt, descending fire,
The earth all-parent, trembles at thy ire ;
The sea all-shining ; and each beast that hears
The sound terrific, with dread horror fears :
When Nature's face is bright with flashing fire,
And in the heavens resound thy thunders dire.
Thy thunders white, the azure garments tear,
And burst the veil of all surrounding air.
O Jove, all-blessed, may thy wrath severe,
Hurl'd in the bosom of the deep appear,
And on the tops of mountains be reveal'd,
For thy strong arm is not from us conceal'd.
Propitious to these sacred rites incline,
And crown my wishes with a life divine :
Add royal health, and gentle peace beside,
With equal reason, for my constant guide.

20. To Jove as the Author of Lightning.
The Fumigation from Frankincense and Manna.

I call the mighty, holy, splendid light,
Aerial, dreadful-sounding, fiery-bright ;
Flaming, aerial-light, with angry voice,
Lightning thro' lucid clouds with horrid noise.
Untam'd, to whom resentments dire belong,
Pure, holy pow'r, all-parent, great and strong :
Come, and benevolent these rites attend,
And grant my days a peaceful, blessed end.

21. To the Clouds.

The Fumigation from Myrrh.

Aerial clouds, thro' heav'n's resplendent plains
Who wander, parents of prolific rains ;
Who nourish fruits, whose water'y frames are hurl'd,
By winds impetuous, round the mighty world ;
All-thundering, lion-roaring, flashing fire,
In Air's wide bosom, bearing thunders dire :
Impell'd by ev'ry stormy, sounding gale,
With rapid course, along the skies ye fail.
With blowing winds your wat'ry frames I call,
On mother Earth with fruitful show'rs to fall.

22. To the Sea, or Tethys.

The Fumigation from Frankincense and Manna.

Tethys I call, with eyes caerulean bright,
Hid in a veil obscure from human sight ;
Great Ocean's empress, wand'ring thro' the deep,
And pleas'd with gentle gales, the earth to sweep ;
Whose blessed waves in swift succession go,
And lash the rocky shore with endless flow :
Delighting in the Sea serene to play,
In ships exulting and the wat'ry way.
Mother of Venus, and of clouds obscure,
Great nurse of beasts, and source of fountains pure.
O venerable Goddess, hear my pray'r,
And make benevolent my life thy care ;
Send, blessed queen, to ships a prosp'rous breeze,
And waft them safely o'er the stormy seas.

23. To the Nereus.

The Fumigation from Frankincense and Manna.

O Thou, who dost the roots of Ocean keep in seats caerulean, daemon of the deep,
With fifty nymphs (attending in thy train,
Fair virgin artists) glorying thro' the main :
The dark foundation of the rolling sea
And Earth's wide bounds, belong much-fam'd to thee :
Great daemon, source of all, whose pow'r can make
The Earth's unmeasur'd, holy basis shake,
When blust'ring winds in secret caverns pent,
By thee excited, struggle hard for vent :
Come, blessed Nereus, listen to my pray'r,
And cease to shake the earth with wrath severe ;
Send on our sacred rites abundant health,
With peace divine and necessary wealth.

23. To the Nereids.

The Fumigation from Aromatics.

Daughters of Nereus, resident in caves
Merg'd deep in Ocean, sporting thro' the waves ;
Fanatic fifty nymphs, who thro' the main
Delight to follow in the Triton's train,
Rejoicing close behind their cars to keep ;
Whose forms half wild, are nourish'd by the deep,
With other nymphs of different degree
Leaping and wand'ring thro' the liquid sea :
Bright, wat'ry dolphins, sonorous and gay,
Well pleas'd to sport with bachanalian play ;
Nymphs beauteous-ey'd, whose sacrifice delights,
Send rich abundance on our mystic rites ;
For you at first disclos'd the rites divine,
Of holy Bacchus and of Prosperine,
Of fair Calliope from whom I spring,
And of Apollo bright, the Muse's king.

25. To Proteus.

The Fumigation from Storax.

Proteus I call, whom Fate decrees, to keep
The keys which lock the chambers of the deep ;
First-born, by whose illustrious pow'r alone
All Nature's principles are clearly shewn :
Matter to change with various forms is thine,
Matter unform'd, capacious and divine.
All-honor'd, prudent, whose sagacious mind
Knows all that shall be in succeeding time ;
So vast thy wisdom, wond'rous, and sublime :
For all things Nature first to thee consign'd,
And in thy essence omniform confin'd,
Come, blessed father, to our rites attend,
And grant our happy lives a prosp'rous end.

26. To the Earth.

The Fumigation from every kind of seed, except beans and Aromatics.

O Goddess, Earth, of Gods and men the source,
Endu'd with fertile, all destroying force ;
All-parent, bounding, whose prolific pow'rs,
Produce a storeof beauteous fruits and flow'rs,
All-various maid, th' eternal world's strong base
Immortal, blessed, crown'd with ev'ry grace ;
From whose wide womb, as from an endless root,
Fruits, many-form'd, mature and grateful shoot.
Deep bosom'd, blessed, pleas'd with grassy plains,
Sweet to the smell, and with prolific rains.
All flow'ry daemon, centre of the world,
Around thy orb, the beauteous stars are hurl'd
With rapid whirl, eternal and divine,
Whose frames with matchless skill and wisdom shine.
Come, blessed Goddess, listen to my pray'r,
And make increase of fruits thy constant care ;
With fertile Seasons in thy train, draw near,
And with propitious mind thy suppliant hear.

27. To the Mother of the Gods.

The Fumigation from a Variety of Odoriferous Substances .

Mother of Gods, great nurse of all, draw near,
Divinely honor'd, and regard my pray'r :
Thron'd on a car, by lions drawn along,
By bull-destroying lions, swift and strong,
Thou sway'st the sceptre of the pole divine,
And the world's middle seat, much-fam'd, is thine.
Hence earth is thine, and needy mortals share
Their constant food, from thy protecting care :
From thee at first both Gods and men arose ;
From thee, the sea and ev'ry river flows.
Vesta, and source of good, thy name we find
To mortal men rejoicing to be kind ;
For ev'ry good to give, they soul delights ;
Come, mighty pow'r, propitious to our rites,
All-taming, blessed, Phrygian saviour, come,
Saturn's great queen, rejoicing in the drum.
Celestial, ancient, life-supporting maid,
Fanatic Goddess, give thy suppliant aid ;
With joyful aspect on our incense shine,
And, pleas'd, accept the sacrifice divine.

28. To Mercury.

The Fumigation from Frankincense.

Hermes, draw near, and to my pray'r incline,
Angel of Jove, and Maia's son divine ;
Studious of contests, ruler of mankind,
With heart almighty, and a prudent mind.
Celestial messenger, of various skill,
Whose pow'rful arts could watchful Argus kill :
With winged feet, 'tis thine thro' air to course,
O friend of man, and prophet of discourse ;
Great life-supporter, to rejoice is thine,
In arts gymnastic, and in fraud divine ;
With pow'r endu'd all language to explain,
Of care the loos'ner, and the source of gain.
Whose hand contains of blameless peace the rod,
Corucian, blessed, profitable God :
Of various speech, whose aid in works we find,
And in necessities to mortals kind :
Dire weapon of the tongue, which men revere,
Be present, Hermes, and thy suppliant hear ;
Assist my works, conclude my life with peace,
Give graceful speech, and memory's increase.

Daughter of Jove, almighty and divine,
Come, blessed queen, and to these rites incline :
Only-begotten, Pluto's honor'd wife,
O venerable Goddess, source of life :
'Tis thine in earth's profundities to dwell,
Fast by the wide and dismal gates of hell :
Jove's holy offspring, of the beauteous mien,
Fatal, with lovely locks, infernal queen :
Source of the furies, whose blest frame proceeds
From Jove's ineffable and secret seeds :
Mother of Bacchus, sonorous, divine,
And many-form'd, the parent of the vine :
The dancing Hours attend thee, essence bright,
All-ruling virgin, bearing heav'nly light :
Illustrious, horned, of a bounteous mind,
Alone desir'd by those of mortal kind.
O, vernal queen, whom grassy plains delight,
Sweet to the smell, and pleasing to the sight :
Whose holy form in budding fruits we view,
Earth's vigorous offspring of a various hue :
Espous'd in Autumn : life and death alone
To wretched mortals from thy power is known :
For thine the task according to thy will,
Life to produce, and all that lives to kill.
Hear, blessed Goddess, send a rich increase
Of various fruits from earth, with lovely Peace ;
Send Health with gentle hand, and crown my life
With blest abundance, free from noisy strife ;
Last in extreme old age the prey of Death,
Dismiss we willing to the realms beneath,
To thy fair palace, and the blissful plains
Where happy spirits dwell, and Pluto reigns.

Two-horn'd, with ivy crown'd, euion, pure :
Bull-fac'd, and martial, bearer of the vine,
Endu'd with council prudent and divine :
Triennial, whom the leaves of vines adorn,
Of Jove and Prosperine, occultly born.
Immortal daemon, hear my suppliant voice,
Give me in blameless plenty to rejoice ;
And listen gracious to my mystic pray'r,
surrounded with thy choir of nurses fair.

31. To the Curetes.

Leaping curetes, who with dancing feet
And circling measures, armed footsteps beat :
Whose bosom's mad, fanatic transports fire,
Who move in rythm to the sounding lyre :
Who traces deaf when lightly leaping tread,
Arm bearers, strong defenders, rulers dread :
Propitious omens, guards of Prosperine,
Preserving rites, mysterious and divine :
Come, and benevolent my words attend,
(In herds rejoicing), and my life defend.

32. To Pallas Athena.

Only-begotten, noble race of Jove,
Blessed and fierce, who joy'st in caves to rove :
O warlike Pallas, whose illustrious kind,

And groves, and shady mountains thee delight :
In arms rejoicing, who with Furies dire
And wild, the souls of mortals dost inspire.

Dire Gorgons bane, unmarried, blessed, kind :
Mother of arts, impetuous ; understood,
Rage to the wicked, wisdom to the good :
Female and male, the arts of war are thine,
Fanatic, much-form'd dragoness, divine :

Thy coursers driving, with destruction dire.
Sprung from the head of Jove, of splendid mien,
Purger of evils, all-victorious queen.
Hear me, O Goddess, when to thee I pray,
With supplicating voice both night and day,

Receives it's constant, rich fertility.

Views all within, and all beneath the sky :
Whose locks are gold, whose oracles are sure,
Who, omens good reveal'st, and precepts pure :
Hear me entreating for the human kind,
Hear, and be present with benignant mind ;
For thou survey'st this boundless aether all,
And ev'ry part of this terrestrial ball
Abudant, blessed ; and thy piercing fight,
Extends beneath the gloomy, silent night ;
Beyond the darkness, starry-eyed, profound,
The stable roots, deep fix'd by thee are found.
The world's wide bounds, all-flourishing are thine,
Thyself of all the source and end divine :
'Tis thine all Nature's music to inspire,
With various-sounding, harmonising lyre ;
Now the last string thou tun'st to sweet accord,
Divinely warbling now the highest chord ;
Th' immortal golden lyre, now touch'd by thee,
Responsive yields a Dorian melody.
All Nature's tribes to thee their diff'rence owe,
And changing seasons from thy music flow :
Hence, mix'd by thee in equal parts, advance

Summer and Winter in alternate dance ;
This claims the highest, that the lowest string,
The Dorian measure tunes the lovely spring :
Hence by mankind, Pan-Royal, two-horn'd nam'd,
Emitting whistling winds thro' Syrinx fam'd ;
Since to thy care, the figur'd seal's consign'd,

The Fumigation from Frankincense.

O mighty Titans, who from heav'n and earth
Derive your noble and illustrious birth,
Our fathers fires, in Tartarus profound
Who dwell, deep merg'd beneath the solid ground :
Fountains and principles, from whom began
Th' afflicted, miserable, race of man :
Who not alone in earth's retreats abide,
But in the ocean and the air reside ;
Since ev'ry species from your nature flows,
Which all prolific, nothing barren knows :
Avert your rage, if from th' infernal feats
One of your tribe should visit our retreats.

Defending mortals thro' the sea profound.

Initial rites to men at first were shewn :
Who shake old Ocean thund'ring to the sky,
And stubborn oaks with branches waving high.
'Tis your's in glittering arms the earth to beat,
With lightly-leaping, rapid, sounding feet ;
Then every beast the noise terrific flies,
And the loud tumult wanders thro' the skies :
The dust your feet excites with matchless force,
Flies to the clouds amidst their whirling course ;
And ev'ry flower of variegated hue,
Grows in the dancing motion form'd by you.
Immortal daemons, to your pow'rs consign'd
The task to nourish, and destroy mankind.
When rushing furious with loud tumult dire,
O'erwhelm'd, they perish in your dreadful ire ;
And live replenish'd with the balmy air,
The food of life, committed to your care.
When shook by you, the seas, with wild uproar,
Wide-spreading, and profoundly whirling, roar :
The concave heav'ns, with Echo's voice resound,
When leaves with rustling noise bestrew the ground.
Curetes, Corybantes, ruling kings,
Whose praise the land of Samothracia sings :
From Jove descended ; whose immortal breath
Sustains the soul, and wafts her back from death :

For all things spring from thee, O pow'r divine.
The triple Fates are rul'd by thy decree,
And all productions yield alike to thee :
Whate'er the heav'ns, encircling all contain,
Earth fruit producing, and the stormy main,
Thy sway confesses, and obeys thy nod,
Awful attendant of the brumal God :
Goddess of marriage, charming to the sight,
Mother of Loves, whom banquetings delight ;

And of celestial Venus Paphian queen,

Who constant wand'rest thro' the sacred seats
where hell's dread empress, Proserpine, retreats ;
To wretched souls the leader of the way
When Fate decrees, to regions void of day :
Thine is the wand which causes sleep to fly,
Or lulls to slumb'rous rest the weary eye ;
For Proserpine thro' Tart'rus dark and wide
Gave thee forever flowing souls to guide.
Come, blessed pow'r the sacrifice attend,
And grant our mystic works a happy end.

58. To Cupid, or Love.

The Fumigation from Aromatics.

I call great Cupid, source of sweet delight,

Darting, and wing'd, impetuous fierce desire,
With Gods and mortals playing, wand'ring fire :
Cautious, and two-fold, keeper of the keys
Of heav'n and earth, the air, and spreading seas ;
Of all that Cere' fertile realms contains,
By which th' all-parent Goddess life sustains,
Or dismal Tartarus is doom'd to keep,
Widely extended, or the sounding deep ;
For thee, all Nature's various realms obey,
Who rul'st alone, with universal sway.
Come, blessed pow'r, regard these mystic fires,
And far avert, unlawful mad desires.

59. To the Fates.

The Fumigation from Aromatics.

Daughters of darkling night, much-nam'd, draw near
Infinite Fates, and listen to my pray'r ;
Who in the heav'nly lake (where waters white
Burst from a fountain hid in depths of night,
And thro'a dark and stony cavern glide,
A cave profound, invisible) abide ;
From whence, wide coursing round the boundless earth,
Your pow'r extends to those of mortal birth ;
To men with hope elated, trifling, gay,
A race presumptuous, born but to decay ;
Whose life 'tis your's in darkness to conceal
To sense impervious, in a purple veil,
When thro' the fatal plain they joyful ride
In one great car, Opinion for their guide ;
'Till each completes his heav'n-appointed round
At Justice, Hope, and Care's concluding bound,
The terms absolvd, prescribd by ancient law
Of pow'r immense, and just without a flaw ;
For Fate alone with vision unconfind,
Surveys the conduct of the mortal kind.
Fate is Jove's perfect and eternal eye,
For Jove and Fate our ev'ry deed descry.
Come, gentle pow'rs, well born, benignant, fame'd,
Atropos, Lachesis, and Clotho nam'd :
Unchang'd, aerial, wand'ring in the night,
Restless, invisible to mortal sight ;
Fates all-producing, all-destroying hear,
Regard the incense and the holy pray'r ;
Propitious listen to these rites inclin'd,
And far avert distress with placid mind.

60. To the Graces.

The Fumigation from Storax.

Hear me, illustrious Graces, mighty nam'd,
From Jove descended and Eunomia fam'd ;
Thalia, and Aglaia fair and bright,
And blest Euphrosyne whom joys delight :
mothers of mirth, all lovely to the view,
pleasure abundant pure belongs to you :
Various, forever flourishing and fair,
Desir'd by mortals, much invok'd in pray'r :
Circling, dark-ey'd, delightful to mankind,
Come, and your mystics bless with bounteous mind.

61. To Nemesis.

Thee, Nemesis I call, almighty queen,
By whom the deeds of mortal life are seen :
Eternal, much rever'd, of boundless sight,
Alone rejoicing in the just and right :
Changing the counsels of the human breast
For ever various, rolling without rest.
To every mortal is thy influence known,
And men beneath thy righteous bondage groan ;
For ev'ry thought within the mind conceal'd
Is to thy sight perspicuously reveal'd.
The soul unwilling reason to obey
By lawless passion rul'd, thy eyes survey.
All to see, hear, and rule, O pow'r divine
Whose nature Equity contains, is thine.
Come, blessed, holy Goddess, hear my pray'r,
And make thy mystic's life, thy constant care :
Give aid benignant in the needful hour,
And strength abundant to the reas'ning pow'r ;
And far avert the dire, unfriendly race
Of counsels impious, arrogant, and base.

62. To Justice.

The Fumigation from Frankincense.

The piercing eye of Justice bright, I sing,
Plac'd by the throne of heav'n's almighty king,
Perceiving thence, with vision unconfin'd,
The life and conduct of the human kind :
To thee, revenge and punishment belong,
Chastising ev'ry deed, unjust and wrong ;
Whose pow'r alone, dissimilars can join,
And from th' equality of truth combine :
For all the ill, persuasion can inspire,
When urging bad designs, with counsel dire,
'Tis thine alone to punish ; with the race
Of lawless passions, and incentives base ;
For thou art ever to the good inclin'd,
And hostile to the men of evil mind.
Come, all-propitious, and thy suppliants hear,
When Fate's predestin'd, final hour draws near.

63. To the Equity.

The Fumigation from Frankincense.

O blessed Equity, mankind's delight,
Th' eternal friend of conduct just and right :
Abundant, venerable, dispensing constant aid,
A stable conscience, and an upright mind ;
For men unjust, by thee are undermin'd,
Whose souls perverse thy bondage ne'er desire,
But more untam'd decline thy scourges dire :
Harmonious, friendly power, averse to strife,
In peace rejoicing, and a stable life ;
Lovely, loquacious, of a gentle mind,
Hating excess, to equal deeds inclin'd :
Wisdom, and virtue of whate'er degree,
Receive their proper bound alone in thee.
Hear, Goddess Equity, the deeds destroy
Of evil men, which human life annoy ;
That all may yield to thee of mortal birth,
Whether supported by the fruits of earth,
Or in her kindly fertile bosom found,
Or in the depths of Marine Jove profound.

64. To Law.

The holy king of Gods and men I call,
The seal which stamps whate'er the earth contains,
Nature's firm basis, and the liquid plains :
Stable, and starry, of harmonious frame,
Preserving laws eternally the same :
Thy all-composing pow'r in heav'n appears,
Connects its frame, and props the starry spheres ;
And shakes weak Envy with tremendous sound,
Toss'd by thy arm in giddy whirls around.
'Tis thine, the life of mortals to defend,
And crown existence with a blessed end ;
For thy command alone, of all that lives
Order and rule to ev'ry dwelling gives :
Ever observant of the upright mind,
And of just actions the companion kind ;
Foe to the lawless, with avenging ire,
Their steps involving in destruction dire.
Come, blest, abundant pow'r, whom all revere,
By all desir'd, with fav[ring mind draw near ;
Give me thro' life, on thee to fix my sight,
And ne'er forsake the equal paths of right.

65. To Mars.

The Fumigation from Frankincense.

Magnanimous, unconquer'd, boistrous Mars,
In darts rejoicing, and in bloody wars :
Fierce and untam'd, whose mighty pow'r can make
The strongest walls from their foundations shake :
Mortal destroying king, defil'd with gore,
Pleas'd with war's dreadful and tumultuous roar :
Thee, human blood, and swords, and spears delight,
And the dire ruin of mad savage fight.
Stay, furious contests, and avenging strife,
Whose works with woe, embitter human life ;
To lovely Venus, and to Bacchus yield,
To Ceres give the weapons of the field ;
Encourage peace, to gentle works inclin'd,
And give abundance, with benignant mind.

66. To Vulcan.

The Fumigation from Frankincense and Manna.

Strong, mighty Vulcan, bearing splendid light,
Unweary'd fire, with flaming torrents bright :
Strong-handed, deathless, and of art divine,
Pure element, a portion of the world is thine :
All-taming artist, all-diffusive pow'r,
'Tis thine supreme, all substance to devour :
Aether, Sun, Moon, and Stars, light pure and clear,
For these thy lucid parts to men appear.
To thee, all dwellings, cities, tribes belong.
Diffus'd thro' mortal bodies bright and strong.
Hear, blessed power, to holy rites incline,
And all propitious on the incense shine :
Suppress the rage of fires unweary'd frame,
And still preserve our nature's vital flame.

67. To Esculapius.

The Fumigation from Manna.

Great Esculapius, skill'd to heal mankind,
All-ruling Paeon, and physician kind ;
Whose arts medic'nal, can alone assuage
Diseases dire, and stop their dreadful rage :
Strong lenient God, regard my suppliant pray'r,
Bring gentle Health, adorn'd with lovely hair ;
Convey the means of mitigating pain,
And raging, deadly pestilence restrain.
O pow'r all-flourishing, abundant, bright,
Apollo's honor'd offspring, God of light ;
Husband of blameless Health, the constant foe
Of dread Disease the minister of woe :
Come, blessed saviour, and my health defend,
And to my life afford a prosp'rous end.

68. To Health.

The Fumigation from Manna.

O much-desir'd, prolific, gen'ral queen,
Hear me, life-bearing Health, of beauteous mien,
Mother of all ; by thee disease dire,
Of bliss destructive, from our life retire ;
And ev'ry house is flourishing and fair,
If with rejoicing aspect thou art there :
Each daedal art, thy vig'rous force inspires,
And all the world thy helping hand desires ;
Pluto life's bane alone resists thy will,
And ever hates thy all-preserving skill.
O fertile queen, from thee forever flows
To mortal life from agony repose ;
And men without thy all-sustaining ease,
Find nothing useful, nothing form'd to please ;
Without thy aid, not Plutus' self can thrive,
Nor man to much afflicted age arrive ;
For thou alone of countenance serene,
Dost govern all things, universal queen.
Assist thy mystics with propitious mind,
And far avert disease of ev'ry kind.

69. To the Furies (Erinys).

The Fumigation from Aromatics.

Vociferous, Bacchanalian Furies, hear !
Ye, I invoke, dread pow'rs, whom all revere ;
Nightly, profound, in secret who retire,
Tisiphone, Alecto, and Megara dire :
Deep in a cavern merg'd, involv'd in night,
near where Styx flows impervious to the sight ;
Ever attendant on mysterious rites,
Furious and fierce, whom Fate's dread law delights ;
Revenge and sorrows dire to you belong,
Hid in a savage veil, severe and strong.
Terrific virgins, who forever dwell
Endu'd with various forms, in deepest hell ;
Aerial, and unseen by human kind,
And swiftly coursing, rapid as the mind.
In vain the Sun with wing'd refulgence bright,
In vain the Moon, far darting milder light,
Wisdom and Virtue may attempt in vain,
And pleasing Art, our transport to obtain ;
Unless with these you readily conspire,
And far avert your all-destructive ire.
The boundless tribes of mortals you descry,
And justly rule with Right's impartial eye.
Come, snaky-hair'd, Fates many-form'd, divine,
Suppress your rage, and to our rites incline.

70. To the Furies (Eumenides).

The Fumigation from Aromatics.

Hear me, illustrious Furies, mighty nam'd,
Terrific pow'rs, for prudent counsel fam'd ;
Holy and pure, from Jove terrestrial born
And Proserpine, whom lovely locks adorn :
Whose piercing sight, with vision unconfin'd,
Surveys the deeds of all the impious kind :
On Fate attendant, punishing the race
(With wrath severe) of deeds unjust and base.
Dark-colour'd queens, whose glittering eyes, are bright
With dreadful, radiant, life-destroying light :
Eternal rulers, terrible and strong,
To whom revenge, and tortures dire belong ;
Fatal and horrid to the human sight,
With snaky tresses wand'ring in the night ;
Hither approach, and in these rites rejoice,
For ye, I call, with holy, suppliant voice.

71. To Melinoe.

The Fumigation from Aromatics.

I call Melinoe, saffron-veil'd, terrene,
Who from infernal Pluto's sacred queen,
Mixt with Saturnian Jupiter, arose,
Near where Cocytus' mournful river flows ;
When under Pluto's semblance, Jove divine
Deceiv'd with guileful arts dark Proserpine.
Hence, partly black thy limbs and partly white,
From Pluto dark, from Jove ethereal, bright
Thy colour'd members, men by night inspire
When seen in specter'd forms with terrors dire ;
Now darkly visible, involv'd in night,
Perspicuous now they meet the fearful fight.
Terrestrial queen expel wherever found
The soul's mad fears to earth's remotest bound ;
With holy aspect on our incense shine,
And bless thy mystics, and the rites divine.

72. To Fortune.

The Fumigation from Frankincense.

Approach strong Fortune, with propitious mind
And rich abundance, to my pray'r inclin'd :
Placid and gentle Trivia, mighty nam'd,
Imperial Dian, born of Pluto fam'd ;
Mankind's unconquer'd, endless praise is thine,
Sepulch'ral, widely-wand'ring pow'r divine !
In thee, our various mortal life is found,
And some from thee in copious wealth abound ;
While others mourn thy hand averse to bless,
In all the bitterness of deep distress.
Be present, Goddess, to thy vot'ry kind,
And give abundance with benignant mind.

73. To the Daemon, or Genius.

The Fumigation from Frankincense.

Thee, mighty ruling, Daemon dread, I call,
Mild Jove, life-giving, and the source of all :
Great Jove, much-wand'ring, terrible and strong,
To whom revenge and tortures dire belong,
Mankind from thee, in plenteous wealth abound,
When in their dwellings joyful thou art found ;
Or pass thro' life afflicted and distress'd,
The needful means of bliss by thee suppress.
'Tiss thine alone endu'd with boundless might,
To keep the keys of sorrow and delight.
O holy, blessed father, hear my pray'r,
Disperse the seeds of life-consuming care ;
With fav'ring mind the sacred rites attend,
And grant my days a glorious, blessed end.

74. To Leucothea.

The Fumigation from Aromatics.

I call Leucothea, of great Cadmus born,
And Bacchus' nurse, whom ivy leaves adorn.
Hear, pow'ful Goddess, in the mighty deep
Wide and profound, thy station doom'd to keep :
In waves rejoicing, guardian of mankind ;
For ships from thee alone deliv'rance find
Amidst the fury of th' unstable main,
When art no more avail, and strength is vain ;
When rushing billows with tempestuous ire
O'erwhelm the mariner in ruin dire,
Thou hear'st, with pity touch'd, his suppliant pray'r,
Resolv'd his life to succour and to spare.
Be ever present, Goddess ! in distress,
Waft ships along with prosperous success :
Thy mystics thro' the stormy sea defend,
And safe conduct them to their destin'd end.

75. To Palaemon.

The Fumigation from Manna.

O nurs'd with Dionysius, doom'd to keep
Thy dwelling in the widely-spreading deep :
With joyful aspect to my pray'r incline,
Propitious come, and bless the rites divine :
Thro' earth and sea thy ministers attend,
And from old Ocean's stormy waves defend :
For ships their safety ever owe to thee,
Who wand'rest with them thro' the raging sea.
Come, guardian pow'r, whom mortal tribes desire,
And far avert the deep's destructive ire.

76. To Muses.

The Fumigation from Frankincense.

Daughters of Jove, dire-sounding and divine,
Renown'd, Pierian, sweetly speaking Nine ;
To those whose breasts your sacred furies fire
Much-form'd, the objects of supreme desire :
Sources of blameless virtue to mankind,
Who form to excellence the youthful mind ;
Who nurse the soul, and give her to descry
The paths of right with Reason's steady eye.
Commanding queens who lead to sacred light
The intellect refin'd from Error's night ;
And to mankind each holy rite disclose,
For mystic knowledge from your nature flows.
Clio, and Erato, who charms the sight,
With thee Euterpe minist'ring delight :
Thalia flourishing, Polymnia fam'd,
Melpomene from skill in music nam'd :
Terpsichore, Urania heav'nly bright,
With thee who gav'st me to behold the light.
Come, venerable, various, pow'rs divine,
With fav'ring aspect on your mystics shine ;
Bring glorious, ardent, lovely, fam'd desire,
And warm my bosom with your sacred fire.

77. To Mnemosyne, or the Goddess of Memory.

The Fumigation from Frankincense.

The consort I invoke of Jove divine,
Source of the holy, sweetly speaking Nine ;
Free from th' oblivion of the fallen mind,
By whom the soul with intellect is join'd :
Reason's increase, and thought to thee belong,
All-powerful, pleasant, vigilant, and strong :
'Tis thine, to waken from lethargic rest
All thoughts deposited within the breast ;
And nought neglecting, vigorous to excite
The mental eye from dark oblivion's night.
Come, blessed power, thy mystic's mem'ry wake
To holy rites, and Lethe's fetters break.

78. To Aurora.

The Fumigation from Manna.

Hear me, O Goddess ! whose emerging ray
Leads on the broadrefulgence of the day ;
Blushing Aurora, whose celestial light
Beams on the world with red'ning splendours bright :
Angel of Titan, whom with constant round,
Thy orient beams recall from night profound :
Labour of ev'ry kind to lead is thine,
Of mortal life the minister divine.
mankind in thee eternally delight,
And none presumes to shun thy beauteous sight.
Soon as thy splendours break the bands of rest,
And eyes uncloset with pleasing sleep oppress'd ;
Men, reptiles, birds, and beasts, with gen'ral voice,
and all the nations of the deep, rejoice ;
For all the culture of our life is thine.
Come, blessed pow'r ! and to these rites incline :
Thy holy light increase, and unconfin'd
Diffuse its radiance on thy mystic's mind.

79. To Themis.

The Fumigation from Frankincense.

Illustrious Themis, of celestial birth,
Thee I invoke, young blossom of the earth :
Beauteous-eyed virgin ; first from thee alone,
Prophetic oracles to men were known,
Giv' n from the deep recesses of the fane
In sacred Pytho, where renown'd you reign ;
From thee, Apollo's oracles arose,
And from thy pow'r his inspiration flows.
Honour'd by all, of form divinely bright,
Majestic virgin, wand'ring in the night :
Mankind from thee first learnt initial rites,
And Bacchus' nighty choirs thy soul delights ;
For holy honours to disclose is thine,
With all the culture of the pow'rs divine.
Be present, Goddess, to my pray'r inclin'd,
And bless the mystic rites with fav'ring mind.

80. To the North Wind.

The Fumigation from Frankincense.

Boreas, whose wint'ry blasts, terrific, tear
The bosom of the deep surrounding air ;
Cold icy pow'r, approach, and fav'ring blow,
And Thrace a while desert expos'd to snow :
The misty station of the air dissolve,
With pregnant clouds, whose frames in show'rs resolve :
Serenely temper all within the sky,
And wipe from moisture, Aether's beauteous eye.

81. To the West Wind.

The Fumigation from Frankincense.

Sea-born, aerial, blowing from the west,
Sweet gales, who give to weary'd labour rest :
Vernal and grassy, and of gentle sound,
To ships delightful, thro' the sea profound ;
For these, impell'd by you with gentle force,
Pursue with prosp'rous Fate their destin'd course.
With blameless gales regard my suppliant pray'r,
Zephyrs unseen, light-wing'd, and form'd from air.

82. To the South Wind.

The Fumigation from Frankincense.

Wide coursing gales, whose lightly leaping feet
With rapid wings the air's wet bosom beat,
Approach benevolent, swift-whirling pow'rs,
With humid clouds the principles of show'rs :
For show'ry clouds are portion'd to your care,
To send on earth from all surrounding air.
Hear, blessed pow'rs, these holy rites attend,
And fruitful rains on earth all-parent send.

83. To Ocean.

The Fumigation from Aromatics.

Ocean I call, whose nature ever flows,
From whom at first both Gods and men arose ;
Sire incorruptible, whose waves surround,
And earth's concluding mighty circle bound :
Hence every river, hence the spreading sea,
And earth's pure bubbling fountains spring from thee :
Hear, mighty fire, for boundless bliss is thine,
Whose waters purify the pow'rs divine :
Earth's friendly limit, fountain of the pole,
Whose waves wide spreading, and circumfluent roll.
Approach benevolent, with placid mind,
And be for ever to thy mystics kind.

84. To Vesta.

The Fumigation from Aromatics.

Daughter of Saturn, venerable dame,
The seat containing of unweary'd flame ;
In sacred rites these ministers are thine,
Mystics much-blessed, holy, and divine.
In thee, the Gods have fix'd their dwelling place,
Strong, stable basis of the mortal race :
Eternal, much-form'd, ever florid queen,
Laughing and blessed, and of lovely mien ;
Accept these rites, accord each just desire,
And gentle health, and needful good inspire.

85. To Sleep.

The Fumigation from a Poppy.

Sleep, king of Gods, and men of mortal birth,
Sov'reign of all sustain'd by mother Earth ;
for thy dominion is supreme alone,
Over all extended, and by all things known.
'Tis thine all bodies with benignant mind
In other bands than those of brass to bind :
Tamer of cares, to weary toil repose,
From whom sweet solace in affliction flows.
Thy pleasing, gentle chains preserve the soul,
And e'er the dreadful cares of death controul ;
For death and Lethe with oblivious stream,
Mankind thy genuine brothers justly deem.
With fav'ring aspect to my pray'r incline,
And save thy mystics in their works divine.

86. To the Divinity of Dreams.

The Fumigation from Aromatics.

Thee I invoke, blest pow'r of dreams divine,
Angel of future fates, swift wings are thine :
Great source of oracles to human kind,
When stealing soft, and whisp'ring to the mind,
Thro' sleep's sweet silence and the gloom of night,
Thy pow'r awakes th' intellectual sight ;
To silent souls the will of heav'n relates,
And silently reveals their future fates.
For ever friendly to the upright mind
Sacred and pure, to holy rites inclin'd ;
For these with pleasing hope thy dreams inspire,
Bliss to anticipate, which all desire.
Thy visions manifest of fate disclose,
What methods best may mitigate our woes ;
Reveal what rites the Gods immortal please,
And what the means their anger to appease :
For ever tranquil is the good man's end,
Whose life, thy dreams admonish and defend.
But from the wicked turn'd averse to bless,
Thy form unseen, the angel of distress ;
No means to check approaching ill they find,
Pensive with fears, and to the future blind.
Come, blessed pow'r, the signatures reveal
Which heav'n's decrees mysteriously conceal,
Signs only present to the worthy mind,
Nor omens ill disclose of monst'rous kind.

87. To the Death.

The Fumigation from manna.

Hear me, O Death, whose empire unconfin'd,
Extends to mortal tribes of ev'ry kind.
On thee, the portion of our time depends,
Whose absence lengthens life, whose presence ends.
Thy sleep perpetual bursts the vivid folds,
By which the soul, attracting body holds :
Common to all of ev'ry sex and age,
For nought escapes thy all-destructive rage ;
Not youth itself thy clemency can gain,
Vig'rous and strong, by thee untimely slain.
In thee, the end of nature's works is known,
In thee, all judgment is absolv'd alone :
No suppliant arts thy dreadful rage controul,
No vows revoke the purpose of thy soul ;
O blessed pow'r regard my ardent pray'r,
And human life to age abundant spare.
