

Fierce Love Voodoo Spell

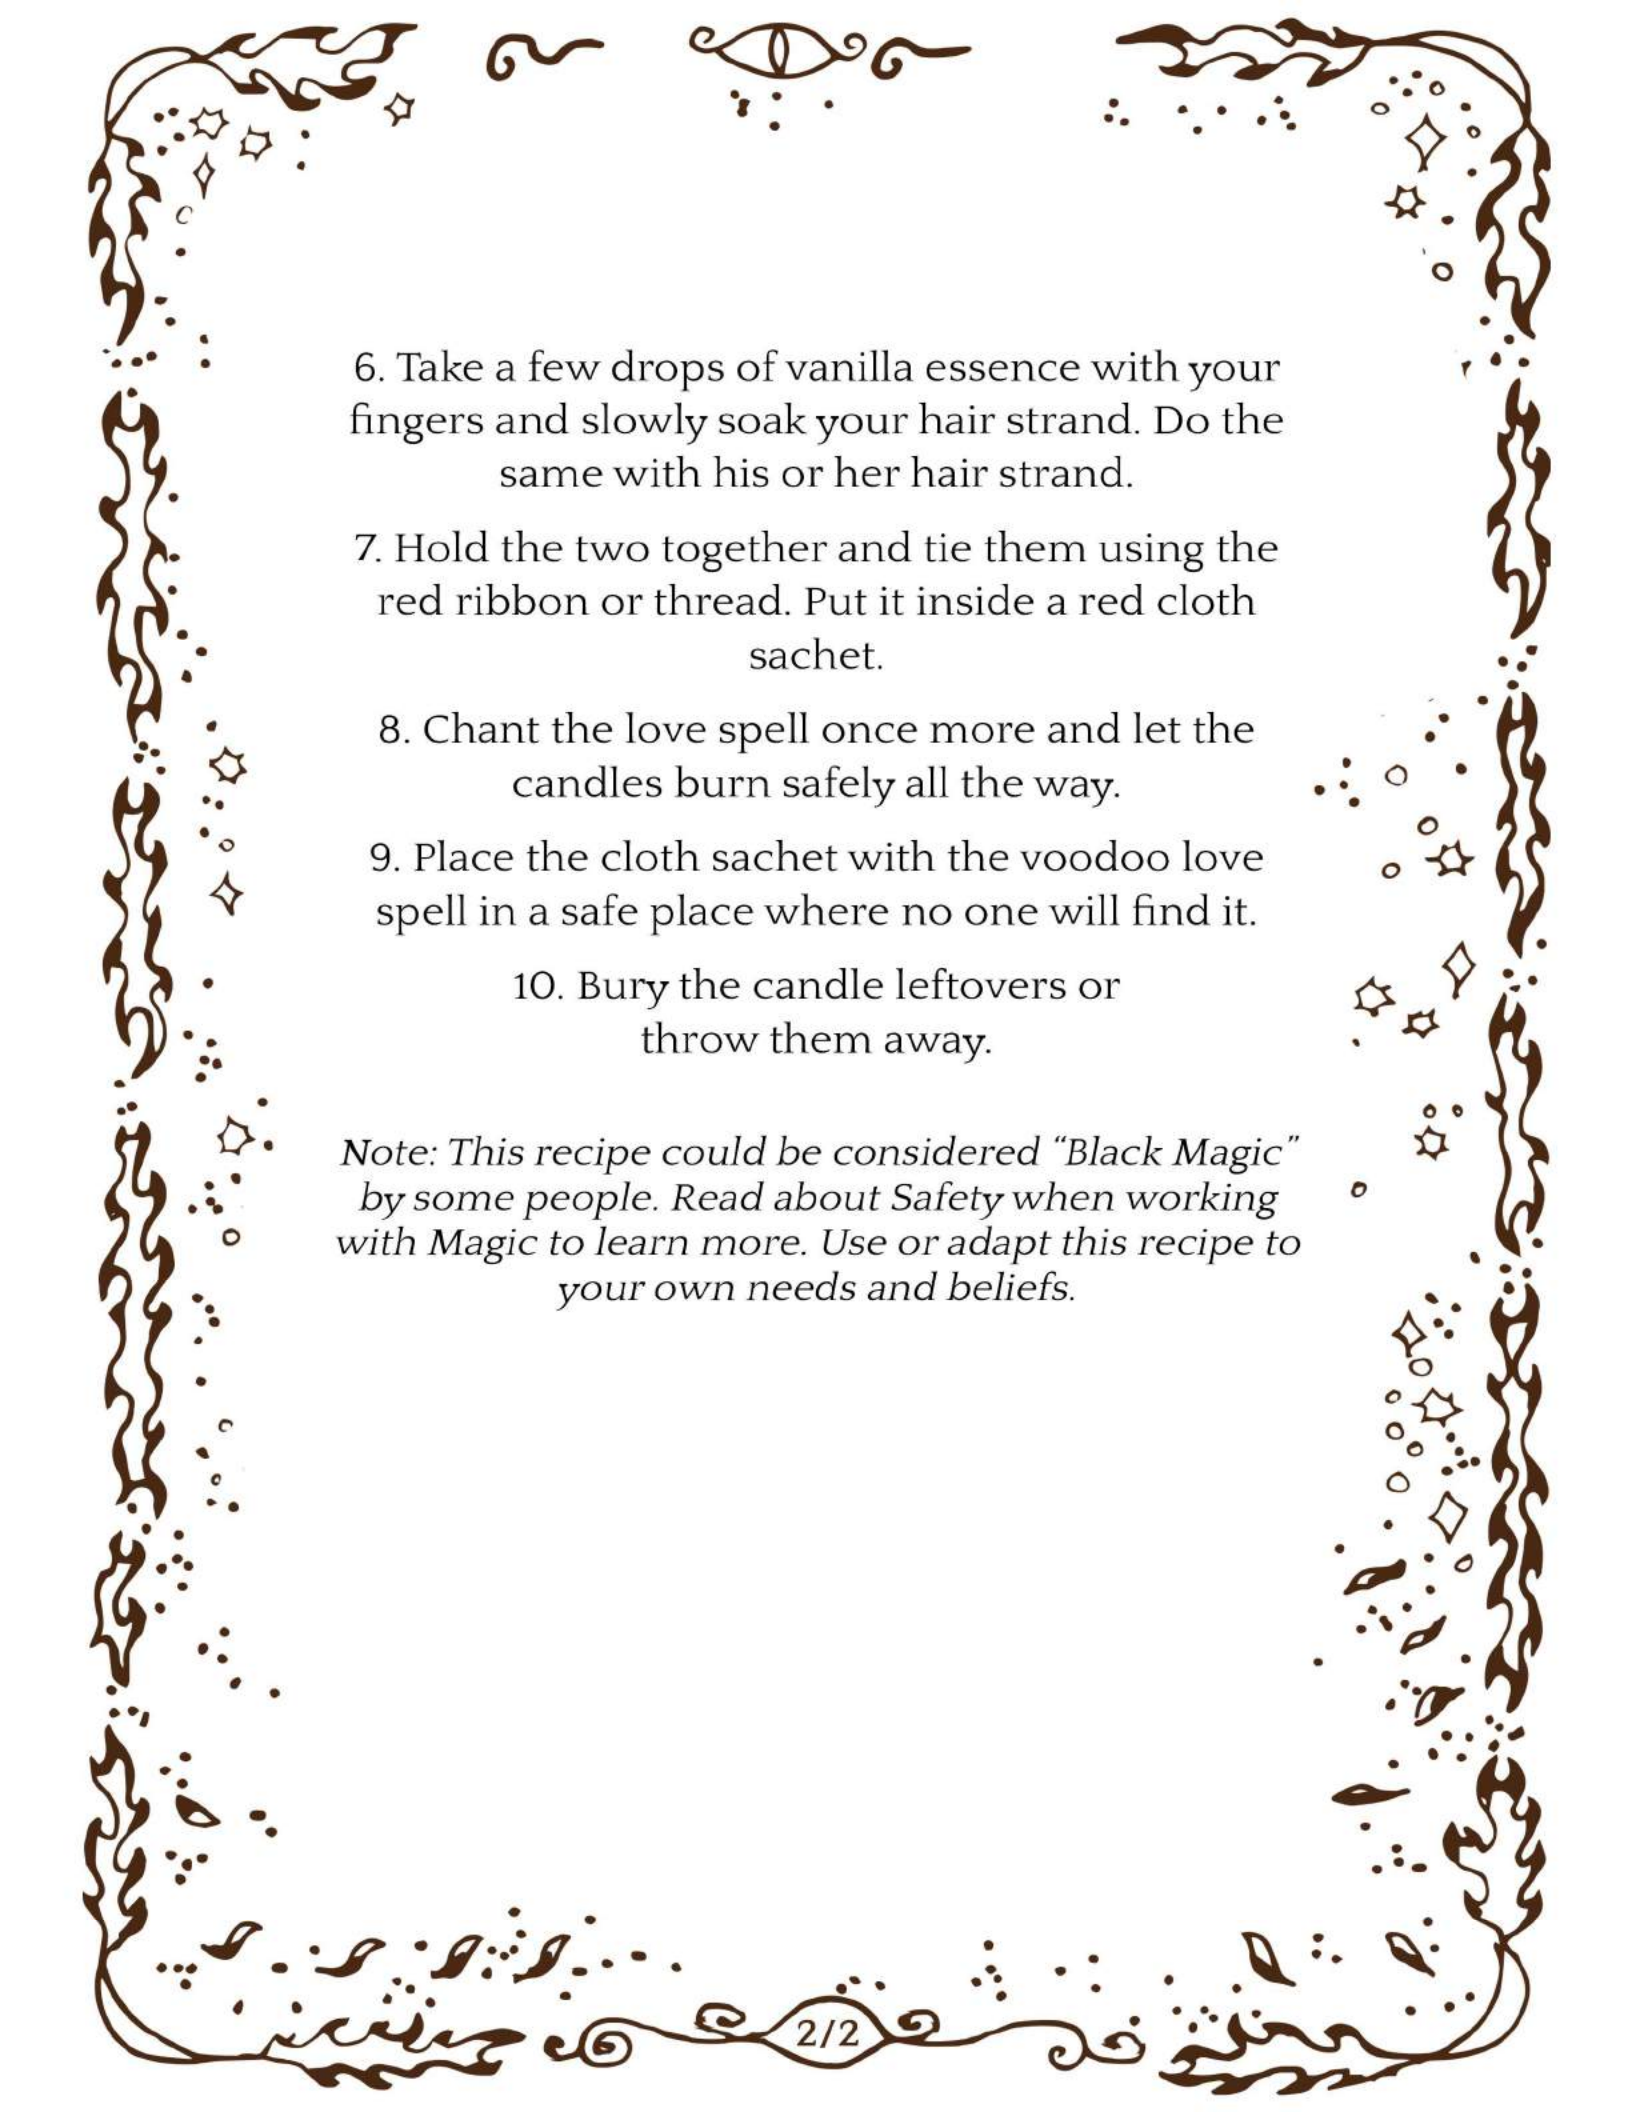

Casting a spell with hair can make a lover become bound to you. Be careful when working with someone's hair strands, as the spell can be very powerful.

- 2 red candles
- 2 strands of hair
(1 yours, 1 theirs)
- 1 red cloth sachet
- Vanilla essence
- Red ribbon or thread
- Boline or knife

1. Use your boline, carving tools, or a regular knife to carve your full name on one red candle.
2. On the other candle, carve his or her full name.
3. Light both candles on your altar, safely placing them on two dishes or candle holders. They could also be on the same dish.
4. Start to focus and visualize the union of you and him (or her). Remember a time when you were together and have a clear picture of that moment in your mind.
5. Take three deep breaths and chant the following spell out loud:

"Crave me without control, Want me inside your soul. For me, you'll live and breathe, A love you can't resist."

6. Take a few drops of vanilla essence with your fingers and slowly soak your hair strand. Do the same with his or her hair strand.
 7. Hold the two together and tie them using the red ribbon or thread. Put it inside a red cloth sachet.
 8. Chant the love spell once more and let the candles burn safely all the way.
 9. Place the cloth sachet with the voodoo love spell in a safe place where no one will find it.
 10. Bury the candle leftovers or throw them away.
