Elemental Correspondences

Earth: Grouding and static element. Physical environment, things out of your control. Something that is keeping you in place or even holding you back. Fertility, wealth, strength.

Water: Wisdom and intuition. What action to take that will lead to the best outcome. Emotional and unconscious sides. Fluid energies, which are always changing, like emotions and desires.

Air: Intellect and knowledge. Try to connect this card to the previous card, Water, to see what message they are trying to convey together. Renewal and change, but in a more internal way.

Fire: Strong and energetic. Source of creation but also destruction. Matters of the heart, passion, new goals, or a direction to put more energy into.

Spirit: The soul, the divine, and the mystery. The overall theme of the reading. You can lay one or two more cards on top of it. Outcomes and closure.
