

Air Invocation

To invoke is to invite and welcome an entity so that we can embody its positive qualities.

Spirit of Air, feathers and winds,
Your power animates all life
and populates all spaces.
I call you forth to serene my ideas,
to clear my mind.

Sweep away the old, bring a refreshing breath of life.

So that your power can flow into me,
in tune with the music of the Universe.

In the ebb and flow of your eternal words: Clarity, strength, harmony.

Spirit of Air, spirit of wisdom,
I call you now.
