Improve your relationship with this simple but effective sweetening spell. Start on a Friday and continue with the ritual for 9 days.

- 2 pink candles
- 2 red candles
- Honey
- Sugar
- Clean sealable container
- Small candle carving tool

1. Start on a Friday. Light one pink and one red candle on your altar
2. Make a circle of sugar around the candles, sprinkling clockwise
3. Allow the candles to burn for a few minutes as you focus on your goal
4. Snuff the flames out with a candle snuffer or teaspoon and leave them on your altar
5. Do this for a total of 9 consecutive days.
6. On the ninth day leave the candles burning.

7. As they burn take your second set of candles: Carve your full name into the pink candle and your partner's full name into the red candle.
  8. Pour some honey on your fingers and dress the candles.
  9. Place these candles on your altar near the other two and light them.
  10. Focus on your goal, visualizing exactly what you want.

Say:

*"May the goddess and god of light and love
grant me my wish and quiet my heart.*

*I place my desire in your hands,
for you to do as you will and as I deserve.*

So mote it be."

11. Let all four candles burn completely that night.
12. Place all the candle remains in a glass jar and seal it. Store it in a secret place such as under your bed or in a closet. Keep it for one month and wait to see results.
13. After one month, release the energy contained by burying the contents or just throw them away in the trash. Wash the glass jar and keep it for another spell.
