5. Light the candles. As you light them, visualize what true love is for you. Picture in your mind how you imagine this great love will come to your life. Have a clear and as detailed picture as possible.
 6. Stand up and hold your hands together in front of you. Keep thinking about the person or relationship you want and say this spell aloud:
*"I shape my world as I persevere,
I'm open to a love that is true and sincere."*
 7. Use the pen and paper to make a list of the qualities you are looking for in that special person. Be specific and detailed. Write as much or as little as you want but make it clear and to the point.
 8. When you are happy with this list of ideal qualities, fold the paper towards you and place it inside the envelope.
 9. Seal the envelope with a drop of candlewax from each candle. Add a few drops of your perfume on top of the envelope.
 10. Blow out the candles and put the envelope under your pillow for one night. Then keep it under your mattress/bed.

Wait at least 14 days to see results.
