Prayer to Fortuna

The Roman Goddess of Luck and Fortune.

She spins the Wheel of Fortune and wears a blindfold, just like Lady Justice. Except Fortuna doesn't hold a balance.

Approach, strong Fortune, with propitious mind
and rich abundance, to my prayer inclined.
Placid, and gentle Hekate, mightly named, imperial Artemis, born of Pluto famed.

Mankind's unconquered, endless praise is yours,
sepulchral, widely-wandering power divine!
In you, our various mortal life is found,
and some from you copious wealth abounds.

While others mourn your hand averse to bless,
in all the bitterness of deep distress.
Be present, Goddess, to we who worship you,
and give abundance with benevolent mind.

Goddess of Fate, I call upon thee.
Enter my circle and come to me.
You know every secret and I'm eager to learn,
Clear my paths and let your wheel turn.

Bless my life with good luck and fortune,
Fill me with spiritual and material wealth.
Pluck the vibrating strings of destiny and fate.

Approach, strong Fortune, with propitious mind
and rich abundance, to my prayer inclined.
