Palmistry

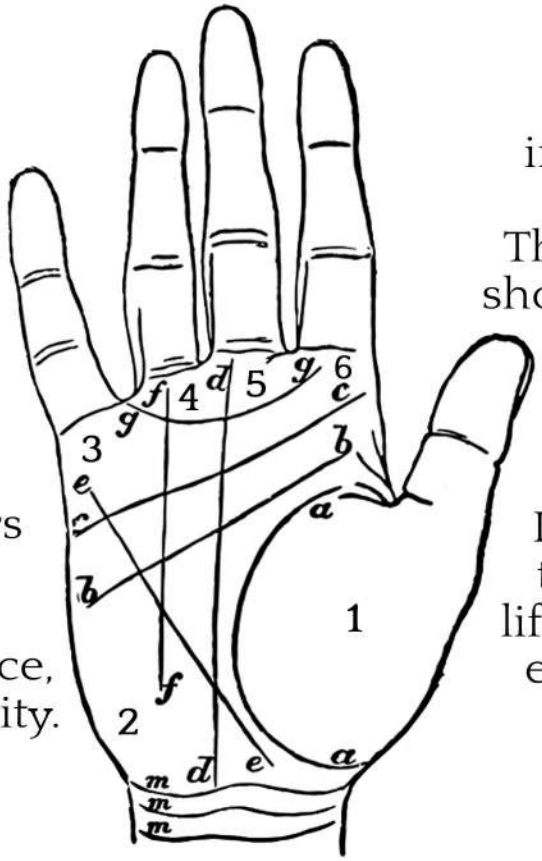
The practice of reading and analyzing the characteristics and features of the lines on the palm to interpret personal traits and obtain guidance. Start with your dominant hand.

a. Life line

It gives insight into a person's life journey. It should not be interpreted to mean the duration of a person's life.

b. Head line

It talks about our intellectual pursuits and ambition. The depth of the line shows the complexity of the person's aspirations.



c. Heart line

It deals with all matters of the heart, including relationships, commitments, romance, friendship, and sexuality.

d. Fate line

It shows the degree to which a person's life will be shaped by events beyond their control.

e. Health line

It is believed that the degree of health issues is shown by the weakness or strength of this line, foreshadowing the development of illness. Do not take it as medical advice. Always consult a

Mounts:
1. Venus
2. Luna
3. Mercury
4. Apollo
5. Saturn
6. Jupiter

f. Sun line

Also known as Apollo's line, it depicts fame, public image, and legacy. This line provides insight into when a person is likely to attain success.

g. Girdle of Venus

This line is found in a few hands only. It reflects to sensuous side of the subject which intensifies the emotions. It can indicate that the person is charismatic, romantic and restless.

m. Bracelets

They provide crucial information on the balance between a person's spiritual, mental, and physical self.