

Triple Goddess Incense

Inspired by Hecate, Goddess of Magick and Witchcraft. This incense can be used in reverence of all and any phases of the moon, and all stages of life, Maiden, Mother and Crone. It is especially powerful for times of transition and spells requiring change or evolution.

- ½ tsp dried bay leaves
- ½ tsp dried mint leaves
- ½ tsp dried thyme
- Pinch of myrrh resin
- Pinch of frankincense resin
- 13 drops cypress oil
- 3 drops camphor oil

1. Combine all the above ingredients and grind to your desired level. Using a mortar and pestle you can achieve a very fine grain, or leave the ingredients whole for a loose leaf incense.
2. Store in a tightly-capped jar and allow the mixture to age for at least two weeks before using it.
3. Place the dried herbs in a small heat-proof bowl or dish and bring the scents of the Goddess in your ritual space.
