

Good Fortune Jar

In old times, witch bottles were made to protect one's home from psychic attacks.

This jar spell grants good luck, protection and prosperity.

- Jar with a lid
- Bay leaf (or a scrap of paper)
- Salt
- Mustard seed
- Cinnamon
- Lilac flowers
- Green aventurine chips

1. Cleanse your jar and altar space with incense, Florida water, or your favorite cleansing method.

2. Add the salt to the jar and write your intention on the bay leaf or piece of paper. For example:

"I am lucky, safe and abundant!"

3. Add the intention to the jar, along with the rest of the ingredients.

As you add each item individually, be mindful of your intention statement.

4. Screw the lid onto the jar. Seal the intention by saying: "So mote it be!"
