

Pagan Calendar 2023: List of Holidays for Wiccans and Neopagans

Bookmark

Pagans and Wiccans have plenty to celebrate in 2023! Here is a list of holidays observed in the Northern Hemisphere by Neopagans (including some Norse, Druid, and Heathen occasions) and of course the Wiccan Sabbats in the Wheel of the Year.

It's also good to have a Lunar Calendar in your Book of Shadows so you can follow along and work with the Moon phases.

Pagan / Wiccan Holidays 2023

In this list, we've included the opposite Sabbats to guide our Southern Hemisphere Witches too.

January 2023 Holidays

Named after Janus, the god of doors, gates, and transitions; January is the perfect time for door-opening rituals, setting intentions and new beginnings.

Jan. 6: Full Moon in Cancer – Wolf Moon

Jan. 14: Thorrablót – Norse/Heathen celebration honoring Thor

Jan. 21: Celtic Tree Month of Rowan begins

Jan. 21: New Moon in Capricorn

Jan. 24: Sementivae – a grain-oriented Roman festival

Jan. 30 – Feb 2: Roman celebration of Februalia

Jan. 31: Up Helly Aa – Scottish celebration in the Shetland Islands

Jan. 31: Disablot – Norse celebration of new beginnings

February 2023 Holidays

Februalia was the ancient spring festival of washing and purification. The land had to be prepared for the planting of seeds in the coming season, so all sorts of cleansing rituals were encouraged.

Feb. 1: Imbolc – Celebration of the Goddess Brigid.

(Southern Hemisphere: Lammas or Lughnasadh – The grain harvest at the end of summer.)

Feb. 5: Full Moon in Leo – Snow Moon

Feb. 1st-28th: LGBTQ History month.

In the 1970s, second-wave feminism and modern paganism surged forth simultaneously. Today, exploration and acceptance of queer and transgender figures expands in the Craft.

Feb. 13-21: Roman Festival of Parentalia – honor the ancestors

Feb. 14: Valentine's Day celebration

Feb. 15: Lupercalia – Fertility celebration

Feb. 18: Celtic Tree Month of Ash begins

Feb. 20: New Moon in Pisces

March 2023 Holidays

As the spring equinox brings balance to the planet, this month is also a time to bring balance into our lives. Celebrate the spring!

Mar. 1: Matronalia – ancient festival of Juno, the birth goddess

Mar. 7: Full Moon in Virgo – Worm Moon

Mar. 21: Ostara – Spring Equinox and celebration of Goddess Eostre

(Southern Hemisphere: Mabon – The Autumn Equinox)
