

Breaking Family Curses

Generational curses are often thought to result from negative actions, unresolved traumas, or harmful behaviors that transcend time and affect subsequent generations.

By setting positive intentions and seeking guidance from a higher power or universal energy, individuals can find the strength to break free from negative cycles.

PRAYER TO BREAK FAMILY CURSES

“Mystic forces, ancient and wise,
I ask you now to hear my cries.
Family curses and chains that bind,
Break them now and clear my mind.
With your power to cleanse the past,
Break the spells that long did last.
Elements four, earth, wind, fire, sea,
Break these curses and set us free.
Renew, transform, and restore,
Family curses exist no more.
So mote it be.”
