

Circe Invocation

Origin: Greek mythology

Signs and symbols:

Wand or Staff, Loom, Sea, Ships,
Potions and Herbs, Animals, Sun

Epithets:

Enchantress, Nymphē,
Mistress of Herbs, Pharmakeia

Offerings:

Herbal bundles, (Lavender, Bay leaves, Mugwort), Black candles, Wine
libations, Sea offerings.

Circe Invocation

"Mighty Circe, Mistress of the Sea,
By herb and potion, you weave the threads of destiny.

In your sacred grove, where magic stirs the air,
And the moon's silver light dances upon the sea,
I seek your wisdom, your guidance, your care.

Grant me the vision to see through illusion,
The strength to embrace transformation,
And the courage to navigate life's tumultuous sea.

Circe, Guardian of the Crossroads, hear my plea,
As I walk the path of mystery, let your light guide me.

So mote it be."