

Hera

Origin: Greek mythology

Signs & Symbols:

Peacock, Crown, Lotus Flower, Cuckoo

Titles & Epithets:

Queen of the Gods

Protector of Women

Lady of the Beasts

Offerings:

Flowers, Milk, Fruit, Bread, Feathers

Hera Invocation

O Hera, Queen of Gods, divine protector of marriage,
From your throne above, look upon us with favor.
Majestic and exalted, cloaked in unyielding loyalty,
Bless the bonds we forge, and the promises we make.

Grant us the strength to uphold love's sacred vow,
To support and cherish, through trials and time.
May our hearts reflect your undying commitment,
As we seek harmony, guided by your wisdom.

Hail Hera, eternal matriarch, in reverence we call,
With offerings of peacock plumes and lilies white.
Embrace us in your grace, bestow upon us unity,
As we honor you, now and in all our days.