Luna Ritual

A simple chant to invoke Luna, goddess of the moon and night sky:

“Oh, Luna, silver-crowned and veiled in night,
Your crescent smile graces the celestial dance.
From shadowed boughs, I invoke your ancient might,
Blessed by your rays, I step into your trance.

In your lunar cradle, secrets unfurl—
The ebb and flow of tides, the pulse of dreams.
You weave enchantments with your silver pearl,
Guiding seekers through astral realms and streams.

Your phases mirror life’s cyclical sway,
Waxing hope, waning release, and rebirth.
In your luminous gaze, I find my way,
As spells are whispered upon the sacred earth.

So, Luna, goddess of the moon’s embrace,
Illuminate our path, our magic, our grace.”
