Sturgeon Moon Journaling

"May the Sturgeon Moon guide you through deep waters and bless all that has ripened."

What in my life has fully ripened and is ready to be received?

Which dreams, symbols, or recurring feelings may be offering guidance?

Which creative or spiritual practice is asking for more space in my life?

What has this season taught me about patience, timing, and natural growth?

What blessings from this harvest season deserve my gratitude?